

Convos Have Haas, Rabbi As Speakers

Dr. Dorothy Haas, national president of the Women's Missionary Federation of the American Lutheran Church, and Rabbi Morris M. Hersman, spiritual leader of Temple Judah, Cedar Rapids, will be the featured speakers at next week's convocations.

Dr. Haas, recipient of an honorary doctor of letters degree from Wartburg in 1956, will speak to the student body on Thursday. She will be in Waverly for the meeting of the National Women's Federation board on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Rabbi Tuesday

Rabbi Hersman, here for Tuesday's convo, is a member of the Cedar Rapids Ministerial Association and is on the advisory committee of the Linn County Association for Mental Health.

Receiving the degree of associate in art from Phoenix Junior College, he earned his bachelor of arts degree in education at Arizona State College, Tempe, in 1952. The Rabbi was ordained at Hebrew Union College, New York, receiving his master of Hebrew literature degree in 1957.

Musician Too

Interested in Jewish liturgical and folk music, he conducted the college choir at Hebrew Union College for two years.

The Rabbi lectures on college campuses under the auspices of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, an organization disseminating information concerning Judaism as part of an educational program.

APO Selects 4 To Players Frat

New members named to Lambda Nu cast of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics group, are seniors Ron Korfmacher and Evon Wick; junior Louis Becker; and sophomore Kathi Frenz. According to APO president Bob Loslo, the four were selected at the Jan. 22 meeting.

Eligibility for membership is determined by participation in all phases of theatrical work with Wartburg Players.

Starck Writes

Ken Starck, college news bureau director, has been assigned by One Magazine to do a feature on the Underwood Luther League, a United Evangelical Lutheran group, near Council Bluffs.

The feature will be one in a series entitled "Living Leagues." Starck gathered data and pictures at Underwood last weekend.

Starck has written several articles for One, including a coming feature about Naaman Laiser, Wartburg freshman.

Olinda Deines, senior from Loveland, Colo., and Leroy Buchholz, senior from Table Rock, Neb., will present a recital Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Fine Arts Building.

Featured as pianist, Miss Deines will open the program with Beethoven's "Rondo in G Major, Op. 51, No. 2." Buchholz will introduce the second portion of the program with "Nina" by Pergolesi, followed by four Schubert numbers—"Wohin," "Morgengruss," "Ihr Bild" and "Standchen."

Frosh Elect; Pops Report

By Wilbur Flachman

A variety of activities and problems were featured in student government action this week.

Don Lehmann was elected president of the freshman class in Thursday night's frosh meeting. Leroy Boseneiler was the selection for vice president.

Secretary for the coming semester will be Deanna Stob. Treasurer's position went to Linda Mugridge. Frosh senators are Bruce Bergquist, David Grube and Sue Schwab.

Elsewhere

Don Hamilton, head of the Popular Concert Committee, reported that Stan Kenton had not yet signed a contract to appear here in this spring's pops concert. Hamilton stated that there was still a very good possibility that Kenton would be contracted.

A delay in connection occurred when Hamilton's first telegraph to Kenton was held over 12 days in the Western Union Telegraph office in Chicago.

Fund Growing

Seven dollars was inserted into the Student Memorial Fund as a final act of the Campus Chest drive, thus bringing the total for the year to $674.

Said John Solem, chairman of the drive, "The committee and senate feel that Campus Chest was a definite success this year in that students were given an opportunity to give out of stewardship and by doing so fulfilled the purpose of the program."

Solem stated that the committee hopes that the Campus Chest will become an annual event on the student government agenda.

Confusion On Dimes

Confusion resulted in Thursday's convo when contributions were solicited for the 1958 Polio Fund. According to a senate resolution last spring, the Campus Chest would be the only campaign for student donations during the year.

Student Body President John Adix said Thursday that the incident was an error which was unavoidable.

"Although it certainly is for a worthy cause," said Adix, "the appearance of the Waverly polio chairman in Thursday's convo and the solicitation of student donations was not authorized by student government."

Adix stated that students were reacting favorably to the move, as several donations had already reached the senate office.

Drive For Books

A drive for used textbooks for Korean colleges will be held Feb. 17-19, according to Jim Schwarz, head of the Student Welfare Committee. Anyone with a used book printed later than 1946 is asked to hang on to it until time for the drive.

A student senate recommendation that called for classes to be dismissed at noon the day before a vacation has been tentatively accepted by the faculty. According to Adix, the schedule for next year lists 12 noon as dismissal time before all major vacations.

VERSATILE VEHICLES

Wagons Used In Emergencies

By Joan Pape

"Hey! Want a ride?" For anyone at Wartburg needing transportation, either student or faculty, the college station wagon service is at their disposal.

Business manager Herb Engelbrecht, who is in charge of the service, stated that Wartburg's 1954 Pontiac station wagon is mainly for use in emergencies. Students who are stranded in Waverly without a ride to Waterloo or other towns to meet a train or plane may rent the station wagon for a nominal fee. Regular student drivers are on call at all times for driving.

Has Many Functions

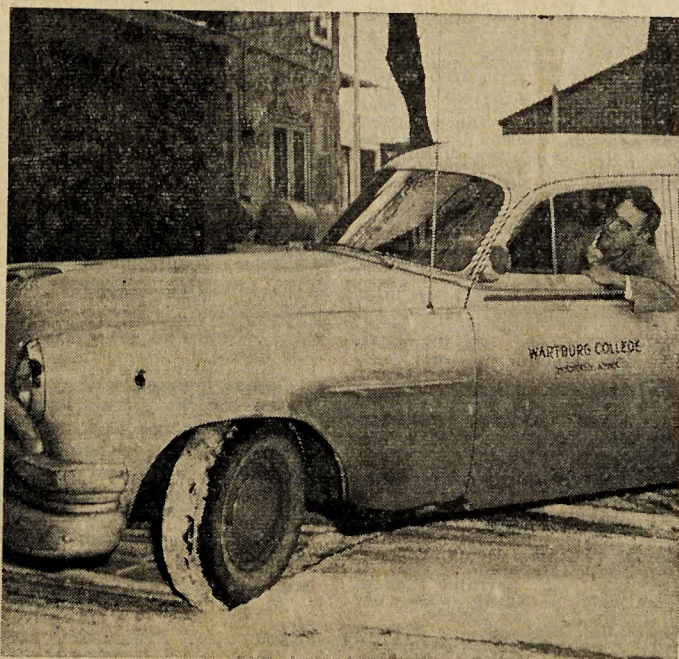

Other uses for the station wagon include fieldtrips, transportation to the county home for students who conduct devotional services there and additional transportation for various groups such as Castle Singers or athletic teams. This weekend, for example, the station wagon transported most of the wrestling team to Omaha.

Two station wagons were formerly used for this service, but one of them, a 1951 Ford, is now used for delivering mail.

Use Only One Wagon

"Two wagons used to be needed," stated Engelbrecht, "because they were used so much by Public Relations. Since other arrangements have been made, however, only one is now necessary."

In spite of the large number of people and purposes for which the station wagon has been used, no serious accidents have ever occurred. As Engelbrecht stated, no driver or passenger has ever suffered "so much as a scratch."

DRIVER JOHN MEYER peers out of the window of the college station wagon to see if he scraped the fender while driving students to catch a plane, or a train, or to a thousand other places.

Driver Picked Up

Some unusual incidents have happened, however. One time a driver who had made a midnight trip to meet a student in Tama, Iowa, was picked up by police who were suspicious about his driving about the streets in the middle of the night!

Engelbrecht stated that the college has considered buying a small bus to replace the station wagon, but as yet the service remains the same—a station wagon ready for anyone needing a ride in an emergency.

From The Students To The Faculty: 'Thank You'

Some time ago there appeared in the editorial columns of this paper an article making the contention that despite the rising costs of schooling, Wartburg students were still paying far less than the full cost of their education.

At that time it was noted that actual costs of education here at Wartburg amounted to approximately $150 more than what the student paid. But whether students realize it or not, their education is actually being subsidized to a much greater extent than this.

How?

Simply this — by the faculty. Today one hears a great deal about the low salary scale of college professors. And this is so true right here on this campus.

The average salary for college professors across the nation is about $700 per year more than that of the Wartburg teaching faculty. This alone would figure out to be a subsidy of close to $50 per student.

Then, add to this, the fact that college teachers are underpaid nationally, and the subsidy could range up to $100 or more per year for each student.

Now, consider the faculty for a moment. Since the college is supposed to be an academic community, it is these teachers who must form the heart of such a community.

Just scan through the list of them in the college catalog. Fourteen of them hold earned doctorates, five of them are nearing completion for the doctorate and another 10 have started work on this degree.

But it is more than educational degrees which make the Wartburg faculty what they are. It's the fact that they are a wonderful group of human, understanding people, working hard and long hours to give their students the best education possible.

With them, dedication to the teaching profession is their creed. They teach heavy loads, spend long hours on class preparation, but in spite of this, they're always willing to give personal help to a student, to sponsor a student extracurricular activity or to have a friendly cup of coffee in the Den.

Wartburg students have many things for which to be thankful, and certainly one of the main things is the faculty. And so, this paper echoes the sentiments of the Student Body when it says, "We salute you, we appreciate your efforts and we're thankful you're here."

"Looks like an interesting news item, Professor Snarf — would you mind removing your shoe?"

Campus Welcomes WMF Committee

This next week the national board of the Women's Missionary Federation of the American Lutheran Church will be meeting on the Wartburg campus. These women of the church have long been loyal friends of Wartburg College.

Their gifts have done much to help the physical progress of the school. The Trumpet joins with the rest of the campus in saying "Welcome" to them.

May their visit be pleasant and may they carry back many happy memories of their brief stay at Wartburg.

It's unfortunate that since the Artist Series program came so early in the week the Trumpet didn't carry a review. For it is my unequivocal contention that Betty Allen was the finest performer to grace the Wartburg stage thus far this year.

When she sang, "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" — without any piano accompaniment, incidentally — there was a long pause before the applause, a pause that revealed audience appreciation better than any clapping could accomplish.

It is also a mark of how great a performer is by the attitude she takes toward her audience. After the show a small group of autograph seekers came backstage, and Miss Allen greeted them and talked as if they were long-standing friends.

She joked about having to rival the Upper Iowa basketball game and seemed happy over the enthusiasm given her by a small but appreciative audience. Miss Allen proved to be an energetic example of the consideration that the stars of the Paul Gregory fiasco seemed to have forgotten — a performer also has to be a human being.

Anybody have a two-year-old sister who has aspirations of becoming a great actress? Director Lestrud is trying to find just such a person for a part in "Beyond the Horizon", his next play.

After plodding to convo every Tuesday and Thursday for the last three years and seeing everybody writing letters, reading books and sometimes even sleeping, I am reminded of an old proverb: "You can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink."

Or how about, "Fools rush in where angels fear to tread" for Oppie's office? For girls going steady: "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." "Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and able to pass his eight o'clock."

Thought I might plug the wrestling team, too. More people should attend the matches and discover how interesting they are. Someone talked me into going to my first one last year, and it was enough to convince me that I shouldn't miss any home meets this year.

LET'S MEET FRIENDS

Kathi Checks Semester — Finds It Just As Busy

By Kathi Frenz

Hi!

Get out your best bib and tucker, Pi Sigma girls. Thursday is the formal initiation of this year's pledges. President Ruth Juilfs told me a little about it, so I'll pass some of the info on to you. First, it is to be a candle-light ceremony in Centennial Hall lounge. The time is 7:30 p.m., and I understand it is to be done debutante style, making it very important for old members to be there. Sounds impressive to me... don't imagine any of you will want to miss it.

And speaking of pledges, there are four Alpha Psi Omega pledges walking around campus reciting the Greek alphabet. Yes, I said Greek alphabet — that is one of the initiation requirements. The four dramatic persons are Evon Wick, Bob Kroeger, Louis Becker and your columnist.

Guess I might as well round off the Greek letter organizations for this week. Harold Kurtz (the boss-man himself) tells me that Alpha Phi Gamma meets this next week also. The Pub House will naturally be the location, but the date and time are still uncertain.

Announcer, newscaster, record filer? ... all KWAR personnel are to be present at the meeting Monday at 8:30 p.m. in the Little Theater if they intend to work there this semester. Bruce Friedrich, station manager, will brief you on some of the future problems facing the station.

Sunday evening, 7 p.m., will find Lutheran Student Association members meeting in Wartburg Hall Lounge to hear their guest speaker, Glen Gronlund. Gronlund is the second vice president of the International Luther League. His topic, "Today — Tomorrow" — sounds intriguing.

Fortress staffers are having an important meeting on Monday evening. That's 7 p.m. in the Pub House, and Editor Flachman whispered that the important part is for choosing the 1958 Fortress Queen.

A few reminders: WAA gals are to have their dues paid in the near future. So soon after semester registration, Gretchen (Utke)?

Cap and gown measuring is Monday and Wednesday nights, 7-9 p.m., in Room 101 of Luther Hall. Understand this, all seniors and two-year grads? (Oops, that includes me.)

Oh, yes, be watching for excess activity over in Old Main. Mission Fellowship has a special project in the air and it concerns said building. More later after I work it out of Pres. Herbie Hafermann.

For now...

'Bye

Wesleyan Racks Wartburg

Axmen Clobbered, 87-70 By Hot-Shooting Tigers

By Wilbur Flachman

MT. PLEASANT — A disheartened group of Wartburg Knights gave way to 60 per cent shooting in the second half and lost 87-70 to Iowa Wesleyan last night.

Wartburg pulled away to a 25-15 lead with seven minutes remaining in the first half. Led by the return of Andy Henderson, Wesleyan drove back to a 40-36 half-time lead.

Hitting six straight shots in the first two minutes of the second half, the Tigers broke the game wide open. The Axmen fired 17 times before Dave Jensen finally hit on a lay-up.

Uses Plenty Substitutes

Bundgaard substituted freely, and reserves played Wesleyan varsity on even terms for the rest of the game. Down 25 points at one time, Wartburg's best effort was narrowing the gap to 12 points.

High point man on the Black and Orange was John Adix with 12, followed by Denny Wessels with nine. High pointer for Wesleyan was Gibbs with 22, followed by Porter with 21.

Percentage-wise the Knights hit 40 per cent the first half and 27 the second. Wesleyan hit 44 and 60. Wartburg grabbed 53 rebounds to the opponents' 39.

Peacocks Pluck Axmen

Upper Iowa University won its fifth straight game in three years over the Knights, 70-68, earlier in the week. The last three games have been settled by a margin of five points.

The closely matched contest was decided on the free-throw line as the Peacocks, lead by 6'8" center Ron Jarms with 23 points, sank 12 gift tosses to Wartburg's 10.

Wartburg Leads

Wartburg jumped off to an early lead as it hit 56 per cent of its shots in the first half. Sparked by Adix, who scored 18 to pace the Axmen, the Knights led 20-5 at one point in the ball game. Forward Wayne Sawyer started to hit from the outside, dumping in 12 of his final 18 points to bring the Upper Iowa crew to within three points at half-time. Tuecke, who scored 14 counters for the Knights, and Wessel were sidelined early in the final period with four fouls. This, along with a cold six minutes, enabled the Peacocks to pull into a 67-60 lead with four minutes remaining. The Axmen went into a press and scored eight straight points, but Jarms rammed home a six-inch lay-up, and Bill Walter, guard, dumped in a free throw to push Upper Iowa into its fifth straight win.

Knights passed their final test of semester week when they trounced St. Olaf, Northfield, Minn., 67-53 in a non-conference encounter.

Squires Looking For Sixth Win

Coach Bob Campbell's Squires will go after their sixth straight win Tuesday night when they try to avenge an early season loss to the Dubuque junior varsity team.

Ellsworth Junior College and Upper Iowa were the latest victims to fall to Campbell's crew. Guard Ralph Meewes paced the freshmen to a 78-55 win over Ellsworth last Saturday with 29 points.

Marvin Ott, guard, dumped in 23 points for the runner-up spot in that game and scored 15 points Tuesday night for top honors in the Upper Iowa contest.

Don Lehman, forward, finished second in the scoring column with 12 counters in the 64-54 victory over the junior Peacocks.

Ouch! You're Hurting

MATMAN JERRY MEYER works on Merritt McCall, Grinnell 147 wrestler, before finally applying the pin in 6:59. Wartburg won the match 18-16.

Wartburg's matmen are going after their third straight win this afternoon when they face Omaha University at Omaha. The Knights won their second meet Tuesday when they opened their home schedule against Grinnell College 18-16.

The Jomen will be without the presence of junior Dick Chellevoid, who missed the first two matches because of a bout with virus pneumonia.

Two pins, a decision and a forfeit sewed up the victory for the Knights in their home-opener against the Pioneers Tuesday night. Jerry Meyer, senior, wrestling in the 147-pound division, pinned his opponent in 6:59.

Arno Frerichs, junior, weighing in at 157 pounds, scored a fall in 5:25. Freshman John Sternberg picked up a 2-0 decision in the 130-pound class and soph Chuck Burman scored five points in the 137 division.

123 — Jerry Cooke (G) pinned Norman Friedrichs, 8:10.

130 — John Sternberg (W) decisioned Dodd Miller, 2-0.

137 — Chuck Burman (W) won by forfeit.

147 — Jerry Meyer (W) pinned Merritt McCall, 6:59.

157 — Arno Frerichs (W) pinned Allan DeWitt, 6:59.

167 — Roy Simpson (G) decisioned Gene Oltrogge, 1-0.

177 — Dave VanAnrooy (G) pinned John Schiek, 5:03.

Heavy — Bruce Wilkerson (G) decisioned Bruce Brye, 2-0.

IM Action Resumes On Lanes, Court

Intramural action resumed after a week's vacation with Carver's expanding its lead by winning all four of its games on the bowling lanes.

Earnest Oppermann had high series with 535 and second high game with a 195. Bob Campbell topped the high-game column with a 211.

Vollmer House cagers defeated Grossmann II, 32-18, in the National League. Grossmann I and Basement topped Alpha-Jacoby 47-32. In the American League Grossmann II downed Hof's Off-campus 39-20, whereas North Hall slipped past Grossmann I and Basement in an overtime, 44-42.

Busy Week For Cagers

By Ed Schaley

Coach Ax Bundgaard's Knight cagers will tangle with the top and the bottom of the Iowa Conference during the coming basketball week.

After ending a road trip at Parsons College tonight, the Knights will return to Waverly for a Tuesday fracas with the other cellar-dweller, Dubuque. Current "king of the hill," Central's Flying Dutchmen return from their semester exams for their first test with Wartburg on Jan. 31.

Parsons Tonight

Parsons' Kelly Greens will field a sophomore-dominated team tonight in what could be a rugged contest for the Bundgaard forces. Coach O. B. Nelson has never had a losing season since coming to Parsons and will have the usual home court advantage.

Parsons possesses the tallest player in the conference for its regular center, 6'10" LaVerne Hallings. While not a torrid shooter, Hallings can reach for those rebounds. Most serious loss to the Wildcats was their high-scoring guard and playmaker, Arnie Ditch, who also led the team in scoring. Ditch is finishing his last semester of college eligibility and will not play against the Knights, according to latest reports.

Home court action next Tuesday pits the University of Dubuque against a much taller Wartburg squad. Like Parsons, Coach Leon Richardson's Spartans must give away a decided height advantage to the Knights. Dubuque is expected to be led by Captain Bruce Meriwether, a 6'4" senior center. The Spartans sorely miss the services and scoring punch of Bill Reid, a hot-shooting guard whom Richardson hasn't been able to replace as yet.

Big Battle Saturday

In its first meeting this year, Wartburg came home the victor in a 72-63 battle at Dubuque.

The big battle for the Axmen will be the Saturday clash with Central's Dutchmen, current conference leaders. After a two-week break for semester tests, Coach Marinus Kregel's big five will put a 7-0 conference record on the line in a clash at Knights gym.

Lestrud Lists Play Cast

Parts for the Wartburg Players' winter production, Eugene O'Neill's "Beyond the Horizon," were cast and announced last Thursday by Vernon Lestrud, Speech Department.

Senior Bill Melvin will play the part of Robert in the Pulitzer Prize-winning drama. Marlene Haibeck, junior, is cast as Ruth, the fiancée of his brother Andrew, played by Bob Loslo. Ruth marries Robert and Andrew goes to sea.

Parts yet to be cast are James, father of the two boys; Captain Dick Scott, an uncle; and Mary, the two-year-old daughter of Ruth and Robert.

According to Lestrud the part of Mary will require a little girl not over five years old. Anyone who knows a girl to fit the part should contact Lestrud.

Rehearsals will begin Monday, with production scheduled for March 6, 7 and 8.

Larson Elected Sectional Head

C. Robert Larson, Music Department, was elected regional governor of the northern region by the National Association of Teachers of Singing at their national convention held in Kansas City recently.

Nine such regions comprise the association. Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa are the states included in the northern region.

Previous to the regional governorship, Larson served as state chairman for Iowa and lieutenant governor for central Iowa, during which time he organized the Des Moines area chapter and is now serving as its first president.

Numbers Up

Applicants for the 1958-59 school year numbered 126 as of Jan. 16, compared to 115 on the same date a year ago. A record for number of applications received in one day was set last Saturday when 12 came in.

WMF Board Meets Here

Representatives of the Women's Missionary Federation from India, Canada and 13 states will attend a national board meeting at Wartburg Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The executive committee will meet Tuesday in Fuchs Lounge. Other meetings will be held in Centennial Hall Lounge and at the Lutheran Mutual building, Waverly. The group will eat dinner and supper in the small dining room.

Any girls interested in serving as pages Wednesday and Thursday during their free time should call Norman Fintel at the Public Relations Office.

The National Women's Missionary Federation contributed $25,000 to the erection of Centennial Hall, and its Iowa District donated $10,000 to furnish the lounge of the dormitory.

"I know that the students will welcome this generous group, which has helped make our facilities possible," said Fintel.

Accidentally Omitted

The Trumpet inadvertently omitted Donna Sheets in last week's mid-year graduation story. Miss Sheets, who completed work toward graduation this past semester, majored in elementary education.

Beckers Host

President and Mrs. C. H. Becker are inviting a group of six seniors, a faculty member or a community resident to their home every Sunday for the evening meal.

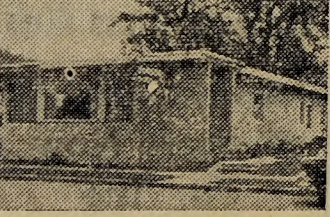

Haefner To Take Mich. U. Post

Dr. Alfred Haefner, professor of Greek, has accepted a position as visiting lecturer, part-time, in the University of Michigan's Department of Classical Studies at Ann Arbor. He will be taking a leave of absence from his duties at Wartburg.

What is the relationship between Lutheran Brotherhood and the Lutheran Church?

Forty years ago, at a Lutheran Church convention in St. Paul, a prominent layman stood up to persuade the group that Lutherans should work together to help each other in time of trouble.

At that time, many still thought insurance was un-Christian. So to make his point, he used a very simple illustration:

"Suppose two brothers made an agreement," he said. "Each promised that if the other died, he would provide for the widow and her children. That would be, in effect, an insurance contract."

A few days later the organization now called Lutheran Brotherhood was incorporated by church leaders. Its purposes were "to aid the Lutheran Church; to foster justice, charity and benevolence; to provide education . . . to encourage industry, savings, thrift . . . to furnish relief and protection to its members, their dependents and beneficiaries, through the payment of benefits in case of death or disability."

While its primary purpose is to give protection to members of the Lutheran Church, the Brotherhood also helps build churches by loaning money . . . helps train church leaders by providing scholarships . . . helps churches grow by giving money and supplies.

The Lutheran Brotherhood is a working partner of the church, staffed by Lutherans to serve members of all Lutheran Churches.
